Course Description

- This course is the continuation of Digital Photography (CP).
- Students will apply techniques acquired in the introductory course to a variety of photographic applications including: Editorial, architectural, documentary and commercial photography.
- Digital and analog assignments will be geared towards the exploration of each area with an emphasis on understanding the relationships among exposure, film development, digital applications, and the finished print.
- Commercial applications, including digital imaging and the working relationship between photographer and art director/designer.
- A nominal lab fee will be assessed to cover the cost of film/ink, etc.
- Access to a manual 35 mm SLR film and/or DSLR camera is encouraged. Both are available for loan.
- Prerequisite: DIGITAL PHOTOGRAPHY (CP) (85 of higher).
