CINA’s mission continues to be to strives to produce graduates who are academically and socially prepared to be responsible, caring, and contributing members of the global society. In this issue we highlight the Community Service and Portfolio Completion that is required of each CBNA Graduate. This is unique to the CBNA experience. On the cover is an example of one of the many student run projects: Senior Nina Laramee is giving blood at the American Red Cross Blood Drive facilitated by Senior Keyla Pollak.

Spring is in the air at Coe-Brown, and as the weather becomes warmer, we are preparing for many events for both our Alumni and current Students.

In April we will host of First Annual Major Donor appreciation luncheon. The Board of Trustees recognized the longstanding contribution of so many Alumni and Community Members, and understands that you are one of the reason Coe-Brown Northwood Academy continues to be recognized as an outstanding school nationally.
